YEM – Official Announcement 7th September 2020

Dear YEM Holders,

Again, the YEM Foundation decided to keep the price range for YEM between $0.95 and $1.15 for now.

However, we have received information about new and promising developments. The moment we see new implemented functions that give additional value to YEM holders, the YEM Foundation will consider an increase in value - as justified

Be aware that the YEM Foundation will take the liberty of publishing a new regulation at any time if there is an appropriate reason to do so.

If there are important reasons to change the trading range or the rules, we will do so, even if it is before a full week has passed.

Be safe, healthy, successful, and happy.

Thank you!

Your Board of Directors of the YEM Foundation
